

CHICAGO AREA MEDICAL ARCHIVISTS FALL HISTORY SYMPOSIUM THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11TH 2018

Prentice Women's Hospital
250 East Superior Street, Chicago 60611
2nd floor – Classroom J

In recognition of October being American Archives Month, the Chicago Area Medical Archivists (CAMA) announces its (almost) annual Fall Medical History Symposium. This year's program includes morning presentations followed by a moderated open forum recalling Chicago medical history during the tumultuous year of 1968. Feel free to submit low-resolution JPEG's from your institutional or personal collections for inclusion in a slide presentation. Email images to archives@nm.org and be sure to include caption/attribution information.

Space is limited; Please RSVP for the symposium by October 1st via email: archives@nm.org

PROGRAM

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 9:00 – 9:30 | Coffee & Welcome |
| 9:30 – 10:00 | Early History & Activities of the Chicago Medical Community /Edward Winslow, MD |
| 10:15 – 10:30 | BREAK |
| 10:30 – 11:00 | Marie Curie: Chicago Connection and Philatelic Homage /Stanford Shulman, MD |
| 11:15 – 11:45 | Dr. Daniel Hale Williams' Heart Surgery at 125: Discrepancies and Inconsistencies In the Literature Regarding Williams' 1893 Surgery on the Heart /Sarah Rodriquez, PhD & Seth Williams, FSOM 2020 |
| 12:00 – 12:45 | LUNCH BREAK on your own |
| 1:00 – 2:15 | Open Forum: "The Good, the Bad & the Ugly": Chicago Medical History 1968 |
| 2:15 – 2:30 | BREAK |
| 2:15 – 3:00 | CAMA Business Meeting |